

SUMMER RESEARCH - THESIS STATEMENT

LULLIS HUYNH - DAISY DUONG

1. THESIS STATEMENT:

Countries with poorer diet adherence and less healthy lifestyle patterns have higher diabetes prevalence rates, even after controlling for obesity and healthcare access.

2. UNIT OF ANALYSIS:

Country

3. VARIABLES:

- Dependent Variable: Diabetes Prevalence

- Research Variables:
 - Diet adherence score
 - Physical inactivity rate

- Control Variables:
 - GDP per capita
 - Healthcare Expenditure per capita
 - Median age